OBITUARIES

Murray Archie Cameron

Murray Archie Cameron

October 13, 1942 – June 2025

Murray Archie Cameron passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy not in titles or trophies, but written in the hearts of the many lives he quietly touched over more than eight decades.

Born October 13, 1942, Murray was a working man in the truest sense — someone who believed that hard work and discipline, paired with kindness, were the greatest gifts you could give another person. He lived that belief every day.

Murray spent years as a teacher — a calling that ran in the family. His mother was an English teacher, his father a mechanic, and Murray found a way to honour them both: he became a teacher of mechanics, blending the precision of the trade with the patience of the classroom, keeping things running and keeping people together.

Outside the classroom, he continued teaching — on the ice as a hockey coach, and on the water as a guide leading canoe tours through the wild rivers of Northern Saskatchewan. Retirement never slowed him down: he remained active well into his senior years as an avid curler, and serving as a first responder, saving lives and never once seeking recognition for it.

He helped thousands of people over the course of his life. He just never kept count.

Murray believed the best lessons weren't taught — they were lived as life experience. Whether it was a fishing line, a farm chore, or an unexpected situation that demanded more than a sixteen-year-old thought he had, Murray had a way of putting you exactly where you needed to be and trusting you to rise. His family carries those moments with them still.

Murray is survived by his wife of sixty-four years, Gloria; his four children Dwayne Cameron, Ian Cameron, Karon Cameron, and Michelle Groeger; and 13 grandchildren who knew him as the kind of grandfather who showed you that a good day's work carries its own reward.

He will be deeply missed, and quietly present in every act of kindness his family carries forward.

Come and go tea was held Saturday, July 4, 2026, from 1:00 PM to 3:30 PM at the Shellbrook Seniors Hall, Shellbrook, SK.

In lieu of tributes, memorial donations may be made in memory of Murray to the Saskatchewan Animal Protection Service in Melfort.

Family and friends wishing to send online condolences are welcome to visit www.beaulacfuneralhome.com. Arrangements have been entrusted to the care of Beau "Lac" Funeral Home and Crematorium, Tammy Smart Funeral Director, Shellbrook, SK 306-747-2828.

Richard C. "Porky" Porter

With profound sadness I announce the passing of my dearly beloved husband, Richard "Porky" Porter. Born on March 23, 1943, Porky was the adopted son of Albert and Winifred Porter.

Porky grew up with a strong work ethic and was always willing to lend a hand.

He married his wife Anna in July 1967. He began his adult career farming, then went on to include trucking, gravel crushing, logging and grass mowing for highways. He farmed until his health wouldn't allow it. He then turned his attention to civic and provincial service, which he enjoyed and was able to make a difference.

The last two years of his life were spent at Spruce Manor, Dalmeny, where he received exemplary care.

A Celebration of Porky's life will be held Thursday, July 16, 1:00 pm at the Shellbrook Community Hall.

We invite you to join us as we celebrate Porky's life, share memories, laughter and stories to honor the incredible man he was!

Porky is survived by his loving wife Ann (Swan) Porter; his sister Joanna Andrews (Peter Naylor) and daughters Jocelyn (Jim) and family, Sarah (Manny) and family; his brother-in-law Jim Swan (Sandie) and family; his sisters-in-law Barb (Glen Bloom), Shirley Christianson and family, Bea (Maurice) Stieb and family, Linda (Bob) Miller and family, and Lois (Rick) Freeman and family.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to: Spruce Manor Special Care Home, Dalmeny, SK at accounting@sprucemanorspecialcare-home.com or to Shellbrook and Districts Health Services Foundation, (Box 33, Shellbrook, SK S0J 2E0).

For those unable to attend Porky's Memorial Celebration, there will be a video link available following the service on the Beau "Lac" Funeral Home & Crematorium website.

Family and friends wishing to send condolences online are welcome to visit www.beaulacfuneralhome.com. Arrangements have been entrusted to the care of Beau "Lac" Funeral Home & Crematorium, Tammy Smart, Funeral Director, Shellbrook, SK. 306-747-2828.

GOOD NEWS

MY REFUGE AND MY FORTRESS

By DEB ANDERSON
Submitted

There are stressful times in life. Financial demands soar at times when necessities breakdown, job security may fail or a myriad of other mishaps occur that bombard one's soul.

Remembering pre-Christian coping, there was worry, sleepless nights, escalating fears of more that could go wrong than was wrong, and use of destructive habits. Praise God, things have changed!

Jesus told us that in this world we would have tribulation, but He also comforted with the end of the sentence: "Be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." He did show victory over all situations. When we go through hard times, it may be a testing of our faith.

Our level of trust in God shows its strength or weakness when the "chips are down." Are we unshaken, standing firm in His armor and confident in His ability to see us through?

Stress can put one almost into a state of shock. Simple activities get forgotten, there is little energy, one just gets through. God's Holy Spirit within reminds us of events in Scripture where others have gone through hard times.

The prophet Elisha's friend — the Shunammite woman — comes to mind. She had her husband make a place for Elisha in their home, as he often passed by there. Friendship with the man of God netted confidence in His power and faith-filled words when crisis came (2 Kings 4:8-37).

One day, her boy collapsed and later died in her arms. "And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, (Elisha) shut the door upon him, and went out. Then she called to her husband and said, 'Please send me one of the young men and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and come back.' When her husband asked her why? she replied, 'It is well.'"

Elisha saw her approaching in the distance and asked his servant to hurry to her and ask if all was well. And she answered, "It is well." She cried out to Elisha, without disclosing what was wrong with the boy. Elisha sent his servant ahead of him. Only when Elisha arrived and prayed fervently was the boy fully raised and recovered."

Some things only God can help us with. Did the Shunammite woman learn about declaring words of faith from Elisha? The events in Elisha's life are filled with wonderful works of God. These are written to encourage us to believe that with God all things are possible.

This same God is 'for' us in good times and bad. He doesn't always give us what we want, but, in Him, there is a secure place to ride out the storm. Faith pleases God. Trust in His goodness. He cares for you.

"He is my refuge and my fortress; my God, in Him I will trust." (Psalm 91:2).

Canada Day brings Shellbrook together

By JORDAN TWISS
Shellbrook Chronicle
Reporter

For many years, the oft-repeated refrain in Shellbrook has been that there's no point in hosting Canada Day festivities because everyone's off at the lake.

Tiring of that excuse, and hoping to build a stronger sense of community in town, Lorraine Thibeault set out to prove the naysayers wrong.

And thanks to her efforts, and contributions from local businesses, community groups, and volunteers, Shellbrook had what she calls a "red, white, and wow" Canada Day celebration on Edith Henry and Dale Ahenakew lead the Canada Day Parade procession.

Wednesday, July 1.

Continuing a tradition established a few years ago, the celebration of Canada's 159th birthday began in the morning at the Shellbrook Pentecostal Assembly with a pancake breakfast and silent auction fundraiser (by donation) for the Shellbrook and Area Ministerial Food Bank.

Over the course of two hours, volunteers from the local and area church community served pancakes, eggs, and sausage (donated by Parkland Meats) to a steady stream of guests. Between breakfast donations and bids on the silent auction items (donated by local businesses), the morning raised more than $3,300.

Once they woke from their food comas, people gathered at the south end of Main Street, where many businesses had decorated their storefronts in red and white for a contest, to watch the inaugural Canada Day parade.

Thibeault says there were 40 entrants in the parade — including kids on their bikes, seniors in scooters or electric wheelchairs, and others — who boisterously rode their way up the street before circling back to the Shellbrook Senior's Centre.

Winners for the storefront decoration contest included Designers'

Edge, Flowers 'n More, Shellbrook Bigway, Beau "Lac" Funeral Home, and Dr. Koeberlin's office.

Prizes were also up for grabs for parade entrants (provided by Tammy Smart and Woodland Pharmacy), though every child got a prize bag (donated by Shellbrook Bigway, Randy Hoback, Shellbrook Subway, Woodland Pharmacy, and Tim Hortons). In the children's bike and scooter category, Hannah Aristide, Kessler Herdin, and Everett (no last name provided) were the winners.

In the scooter and wagon group, Grayson McBain and Nicole Collins were winners (one other winner couldn't be identified). Finally, in the adult category, Edith Henry, Dale Ahenakew, and Leola Skrupski were the winners.

Following the parade, Canada Day celebrants were welcome to play games and peruse vendor booths.

The Shellbrook Arts Council allowed kids to make chalk art and enjoy candy kebabs, the Shellbrook Royal Purple served up hot dogs, pop, and cotton candy, and the Shellbrook Library, an area Girl Guides group, and Shellbrook Martial Arts all had displays set up.

Meanwhile, among the games for both youth and adults were Welly Wanging (a boot tossing challenge), cornhole, a well-attended Canada Day Bingo hosted by the Shellbrook Seniors Association, and a Canada Day swim at the Shellbrook Swimming Pool.

Following the Bingo, the seniors served up coffee and cake (provided by the Town of Shellbrook), and guests were welcomed to stay for a Canada Day trivia challenge. Helene Beaulac, Jacqueline Thibeault, and Al Dion were the winners of the challenge, bringing home prizes provided by the Shellbrook Canada Day Committee.

As afternoon turned to evening, the Shellbrook Senior's Centre was once again the place to be, as the group hosted a Sunset Serenade featuring the musical stylings of Mitch Beaulac, Gerald Lanes, Larry Brossart, Leo Stieb, Marj Bodnarchuk, and Debbie, Pam, and Kim of the Queens of Ellen (formerly the Helm Trio).

"I felt that Shellbrook's Canada Day 2026 was a huge success," Lorraine Thibeault said.

"We have a few glitches to sort out such as how to keep drivers from bypassing the barricades, reigning in some exuberant children in the parade, and recruiting extra workers to avoid burnout of the few workers we had this year. But all in all, it was an excellent event."

Hannah Aristide rode a colourful bike in the parade.

The Shellbrook Arts Council allowed kids to channel their creativity with chalk art.

Stan Waterhouse and pastor Joshua VanZandbeek serve up food at the Canada Day breakfast fundraiser.
